History's Traveling Sideshow (Vol. I) Kip D. Davis

During high school history class as you struggled to stay awake, you may have learned about such events as Columbus discovering America or how George Washington became the first president of the United States. But I'm sure no one ever told you about "the haunted grave of the mysterious Rev. Dehorne" or about a lady who spent her life preparing for her death... I would also bet you never learned about the boy who died from being kissed or about the favorite meal of most death row inmates... If you are ready to learn more and prepared to dive into the odd, strange and unusual events of history, take a deep breath and open the book.
