For Father Pete Farrell it was the pilgrimage of a lifetime walking the Way of Saint James trail in northern Spain. His goal was to reach the celebrated Cathedral holding the bones of the disciple. His journey is shattered when Islamic terrorists unleash a deadly bombing outside the Church killing his friends and promising more attacks.

The former Navy Seal soon understands the man behind the bombings is an old enemy from his past. The one-time protégé of Saddam Hussein was responsible for killing most of his squad in the first Gulf War. Meanwhile the death of a German monk in the Spanish strike ignites a blood feud simmering since the days of the crusades. An order of knights vows to seek revenge on Muslim pilgrims and carries out its own attack in Cairo.

The Jesuit is caught in the middle between the warring sides, torn between his vows of peace and his oath to protect the innocent. Can he and an Iraqi detective stop both sides from reaching a horrific bio weapon unleashing a plague which could kill thousands?

The Hesitant Warrior is a fast paced thriller spanning the deserts of North Africa to the mountains of Bavaria and the cobblestone streets of Fatima.

Scott Klug is an Emmy award winning journalist, a former United States Congressman and a relentless world traveler. A long time student of comparative religion, this is his second novel featuring Father Farrell.
