The Novels of Charles Dickens: An Introduction by David Timson to Sketches by Boz David Timson

David Timson talks about Charles Dickens, much loved for his great contribution to classic English Literature.

Dickens's renowned skill for keen social observation and, more specifically, his incredibly detailed knowledge of London and its theatres, prisons and inns is perfectly released in Sketches by Boz. Many of the themes he goes on to explore in his great novels are foreshadowed in this early collection of short accounts that centre on London and its inhabitants.
