Samantha Hill lives a pretty normal life. She gets up every morning and makes her way to work- at a bank. She's got a place and a routine that she likes.. her life is ok. But she has no idea her ordinary life is about to change!

Samantha wakes one morning to make her way to her job as a bank teller. When a group of men take her and her female co-workers hostage, Samantha is afraid for her life!

Little does she know a SEAL is about to come to her rescue. Now she's falling for the Navy Seal fast, but she still has to deal with the after effects of the night that almost ended her life.

With Clint's high risk job, she isn't sure how things are going to work out between them. Not only that, but Clint has a habit of going MIA... is he playing her? Maybe his work makes him incapable of loving Samantha the way she needs to be loved.

Follow Samantha & Clint's story and see if they can find love together in Falling for a SEAL.

Note: This book contains spicy love scenes and colorful language. A sweet & sexy stand alone, with no cliffhangers, and a happily ever after! For 18+ readers.

This is a short story. The stated page length includes the main book as well as a bonus collection.
