Lola Montez Starts a Revolution Kit Brennan

The wild and sexy Whip Smart series is based on the audaciously cosmopolitan, uniquely influential and true-life historical figure Lola Montez—the actress-turned-political diableresse of Victorian times. In her most flamboyant adventure yet, Lola Montez gallops to Bavaria and, on an outrageous dare, seduces King Ludwig I. The aging royal cannot resist her fascinating moves as a Spanish dancer or the exciting wardrobe malfunction that ensues. As their scandalous love affair gains momentum, all of Europe seethes with an explosive unrest not seen since the French Revolution. During the opening months of 1848, Lola finds herself the target of a terrifying witch hunt, and it will take her considerable wiles to not only save herself but foment a revolution that can change the known world.

Written in Brennan's signature fun, sexy style, Lola Montez Starts a Revolution continues Lola's adventures from France (in Book Two—Lola Montez and the Poisoned Nom de Plume) and her origin story from England to Spain (in Book One—Lola Montez Conquers the Spaniards). And coming soon, Book Four—Lola Montez Seduces America—follows our flamboyant heroine to New York, Nicaragua, and California.
