For years now Barassa and Hiland have been at odds and after a failed invasion two years ago, Barassa now finds itself on hard economic times. The northern kingdoms however now see their opportunity and launch a holy war against Barassa, in its weakened state. On seeing the gathered armies outside its walls, the evil priests of Trantrus panic and perform a final act of desperation, unleashing a horror unknown to the world, and immune to its weapons. But one our hero finds hauntingly familiar. Now it is up to William and a band of other champions to find the one weapon that can destroy the summoned Kaiju, before it destroys Hiland and William's adopted home.
