Predator's Rescue (Gemini Island Shifters Book 7) Rosanna Leo

Peace has been restored to Gemini Island, but wolf shifter Fleur Bissette isn't rid of her personal demons. Can the good guys ever trust a former bad girl? And can a noble tiger man learn to love a woman who hasn't learned to love herself? Find out in Predator's Rescue, Book 7 in the Gemini Island Shifters series by paranormal romance author Rosanna Leo.

Tiger shifter Jani Fodor should have washed his hands of Fleur Bissette long ago. However, when she disappears from the shape-shifter sanctuary on Gemini Island, he can't forget her, and launches a fraught two-week search to find her. He thinks she'll be grateful but the petulant she-wolf resents his intrusion in her life.

Jani recently liberated Fleur from a vicious cult of shape-shifters, where she was brainwashed by the sadistic August Crane. The wolf shifter terrorized their friends at the Ursa Fishing Lodge and Resort on Gemini Island. Labeled a "bad girl" all her life, Fleur knows she'll never fit in with the good guys at the Ursa, no matter how much Jani tries to convince her of their regard. Besides, she can't stay with Jani. Although he's the closest thing she's ever had to a friend, their chemistry is explosive in the worst way.

When a new menace arises, in the form of a vicious drug dealer with a grudge, Jani is adamant Fleur accept his help to rehabilitate her addict mother and remove her from the influence of her dealer. Fleur accepts Jani's assistance but as they work together, friendship erupts into passion. Neither can deny their lust-struck spirit animals, and before long, they realize their connection runs deeper than they ever expected.

Despite the threats posed by the drug dealer, the worst danger of all dwells inside Fleur. Haunted by the spirit of August Crane, Fleur is inundated by visions that torment her. She is consumed by guilt and plagued by old hostilities. Can this bad girl make good? And is Jani's love enough to save her from her demons?
