1910 and Robert Hill works lonely nights on slipway number two at Harland and Wolff shipyard. He's there to guard a half-built boat, the Titanic, destined one day to be the pride of the White Star Line.

But when Bob starts to hear voices in the river mist calling his own name he quickly realises that there might be more to the old Belfast shipyard than he once thought.

As reality starts to horribly unravel around him Bob and his worried family must make a terrible choice between preserving his own life and solving the mystery of the Slieve Bawn and her ghostly crew.

Slipway is a terrifying and historically accurate tale of hauntings in Edwardian Belfast. Read on if you dare....
