The Very Least of Me: Poems and Stories with Reflections Len Lawson

In his debut collection of poetry, Len Lawson explores themes of purpose and identity set in the landscape of a wilderness. He guides readers on this journey with road signs called SELF, NATURE, IMAGINATION, and FAMILY. Lawson also includes three short stories in the collection which are sure to entertain with humor, nostalgia, and reflection. Len Lawson etches his name in the pantheon of modern poets and writers with individuality and finesse.
