A FUN Book about making better choices! SALE! Normal Price $10.50 Anna Brown, age 15, made this coloring book to help other girls her age to be inspired to choose modest yet cute clothing! She knows that it is so hard for parents and teen daughters to agree on this topic. It is better for girls to hear it from another girl their own age. So let Anna help with this little problem! Anna is a Homeschooler and missionary in Ukraine.

This is a purse sized doodling and coloring book that teen girls will LOVE! The adorable characters will be sure to help teen girls to see the difference between "naughty and nice".

This book is one of the best investments you could make for the teen girl in your life who embarrasses you by wearing things that are too short, too low, too tight, too sheer and too flirty.

You and your daughter can flip through this little book together and talk about your perspective on clothing and why it is important to make good choices. This book does not tell your daughter exactly what to wear, but gives contrasting examples to inspire you to have some wonderful conversations.

Tip for Parents - It is always best to prevent problems, so be sure to get this coloring book for girls ages 10 and up. If their friends are playing with Barbies or Bratt dolls... you NEED to get this book for your daughter AND her friends!

This will bring smiles and delight for sure!

This book is purse sized. That is so you can make this little book part of a special "growing up" gift. Buy her a purse, some lip gloss, a hair brush and stick this little book in the purse with some colorful gel pens.
