Alphonse Allais en verve (French Edition) François Caradec

Il créait tout le temps ", écrira Jules Renard à propos d'Alphonse Allais (1854-1905). C'est sans doute ce qui a été dit de plus vrai sur celui qui est à la fois le plus grand des humoristes français et le plus fécond. Ce qui l'anime ? un anticléricalisme et un antimilitarisme primaires, le refus de toutes formes d'autorité, une agressivité contre la bêtise, un dégoût profond des crapuleries parlementaires. Telles sont les sources de la verve d'Alphonse Allais. Et il la dispense généreusement dans ses contes et dans ses chroniques au Chat noir ou au Journal. En attendant de lire ou de relire son oeuvre riche et abondante, redécouvrez ici ses meilleurs mots. Il lui revient de droit, en tant que prince du calembour et inventeur de l'humour anglais, de rouvrir la mythique collection " En verve ".
