IN A NUTSHELL:

Economic crisis in middle-class America. Real people. Real stories. Real issues. Complete with commentary, historical/comparative economic analysis and statistics, helpful resources, and philanthropic programs.

Although Casualties of the (Recession) Depression is about middle-class America, the experiences narrated in this book, along with the issue of recession, hunger, joblessness, homelessness... are experiences and issues that have no geographic boundaries. They are global. Especially in today's world economy. Therefore, this book is applicable everywhere. As I write on the front cover: "They could be you. They could be me. They could be anyone."
