Seeking a fresh start after her mother's death, Chelsea Bates lands in the picturesque town of Starsdale, California. Nestled amid the peaks of the High Sierras, Starsdale defines the term 'small town' with its mishmash of well-meaning residents who always seem to know everyone else's business. The one thing no one knew, could not have predicted, was the evil lurking beneath the surface of Chelsea's ex-fiancé. Preston Beecher follows her to Starsdale with the intentions of taking everything she owns, including her life. Will Preston destroy her dreams before they begin, or will bonds forged in a small mountain town be the pathway to her future? Chelsea's attempts to put the past behind her leads to a new partnership with one of Starsdale's most respected citizens, John Mills, a man who harbors secrets and an agenda of his own. With the help of John and his talented son, Mac, Chelsea turns a dilapidated building into a bed and breakfast showcase. Join Chelsea as she learns the ways of a small town in this, the first book in the Stories of Starsdale Series.
