The NEW expanded and revised Sword Study Bible features:

- * Red Letter Old and New Testaments
- * 1611 KJV with outdated words replaced with the modern equivalents to read as we speak today. Thou shalt is now You shall
- * Special margin study guides
- * Extensive treasury of biblical information
- * Dictionary concordance
- * Available in personal size and large

KJVer Version is a sensitively revised King James Version in which archaic words have been simplified to make God's Word more understandable.

Difficult Term Definitions

Archaic and difficult words are underlined and defined at the end of the verse by using the proper Hebrew text in the Old Testament and the proper Greek text in the New Testament. These words will often open up the meaning of a word or verse that often has been otherwise not understood or misunderstood.

Special Margin Study Guide

The Sword Bibles have a unique, easy-to-use margin study guide with over 90 topics from which to choose. This margin study guide allows readers to go from cover-to-cover using the pure Word of God as their study.

Study Helps

There are many other study helps including: a dictionary concordance, maps, earthquake charts, flood information, the chronology of the Bible (by Dr. Floyd Jones), Bible and Science (by Dr. Henry Morris), guide to the laws of the Bible, Jewish calendar, a survey of Daniel's 70 weeks, land and people of the Bible, the time of the patriarchs, judges and kings, and more.

Red-Letter Old and New Testament

A feature that is unique to our Bibles is a Red-Letter Old Testament as well as a Red-Letter New Testament. In the Old Testament, the red lettering indicates the direct words of God. In the New Testament, the red lettering indicates the words of Christ.

Reading Grade Level

The KJVER version was rated on the Flesch-Kincaid Grade Level Indicator test at the 4th Grade level.

The Received Text

Another primary difference between the KJV Easy Reading and other versions on the market is that it follows the Received Text. The Received Text is what the church fathers have used for nearly 400 years. The Easy Reading follows the King James text almost word for word, merely updating language. Among the many reasons for this is that it allows one who has learned English as a second language to have an understanding of the scriptures without thees and thous. Please note this has all been done without changing one word of doctrine or touching deity.

Great cutting-edge study notes from:

Dr Floyd Jones

Dr. Henry Morris, ICR

Dr. Carl Baugh, CEM

Ray Comfort, Living Waters

Rev. Charles Childers

And much, much, more...
