Praying The Our Father: Encountering God through the Ancient Tradition of Lectio Divina (Lectio Divina Catholic Prayer Journal Series) (Volume 7) Katherine Mills Johnson

Since the early centuries of the church, Christians have encountered God through praying with the Holy Scriptures. Lectio divina, literally “sacred reading,” involves reading, pondering, and praying the written Word of God so that we may encounter the living Word of God—our Lord Jesus Christ—and grow in an intimate relationship with him. Our desire is to meet God as his Word penetrates our hearts, and to allow him to transform us more and more into the image of Christ. The Lord’s Prayer is precious to the Church, given to us by Jesus himself. Yet it can become so familiar to us that, as we recite the words from memory, we forget to meditate on the riches of the truth it contains. Praying The Our Father is designed to help us go deeper in our prayer by providing a practical tool for praying with Scripture using the ancient tradition of lectio divina. A brief introduction to this kind of prayer is followed by a journal-style guide which gives the reader opportunity to pray with carefully chosen short Scripture passages as well as inspirational quotations from the Catechism, Pope Emeritus Benedict, and the saints. This prayer journal is designed for anyone who desires to grow in prayer and draw closer to our Lord.
