Barking At a Fox-fur Coat Donald Davis

Every family has stories told by and sometimes about relatives on the occasion of any family gathering. Donald Davis wants us all to remember and tell those family stories. Here he sets an example with some favorites from his North Carolina family, which has had, perhaps, a few more fine storytellers per capita than your average tribe. Take Uncle Frank Davis, for example. Among other delights are his tale of how he hung onto the multitudinous Democratic votes of the Ratherton clan while at the very
