Do not have any doubts! Asking questions is one of the traits that distinguishes us as humans. Faith, God, the Virgin of Guadalupe, and the Church are themes that remain outside of the quest for this knowledge. For example: Does the Bible mention when the world will end? Will there be a female pope? Is it true that the Virgin Mary had other children? Did Jesus Christ elect women as apostles? Does the church accept trial marriages? Does abortion cause excommunication? Does the Ouija invoke the dead? What is the significance of 666 and who is the Antichrist? Father José de Jesús, in his characteristic style, has succeeded in compiling the most complete and up-to-date information in this book to answer these and other questions. The result is a family guide that addresses the insecurities and preoccupations of his radio and television audience that listens to him weekly in his numerous media outlets.
