Lungs Give the Wind Direction Andrew Franck

There is a boundless prelude before entering sleep or just upon waking when organic impressions wrest from the body the lattice-work of the Not-yet. Upon this Not-yet weave the impulses toward expression. At this threshold the soul streams appearance, the body readies the visible from the sidereal — embodied Imagination perforating the frontier of the Not-yet — the world releasing the horizon for expression. Movement, especially through dance, thus becomes unlimited trust in this body between surface and transience, weaving the elemental into the fabric of heaven, knitting the dross of the Unseen into the light of sight. "Lungs Give the Wind Direction" presents a revised, updated edition of the 1997 work, "Butohmania."
