Brad Varney, "The Shooter's Guru" is Maine's Premier Wing and Clay Shooting Instructor. With over 60 years' wing shooting experience and 45 years' instruction experience, Brad Varney teaches how to shoot safely, accurately, and naturally. This book will provide you with the best all-purpose wing shooting system. The reader will learn that good wing shooting and good instruction need not be complicated or confusing. As a frugal Maine Yankee, Brad likes to keep his teaching simple and efficient. This book is not about the history or types of firearms or their manufacture, maintenance or repair. Nor will you find information on hunting gear. This book is a how-to-do-it guide. The main focus is hitting moving targets, be they game birds or clays. What you will read will make you a better wing shot. The majority of this book is about the method Brad has used successfully on birds and in clay target competition, based on the cumulative knowledge of over 50 years of hunting, competitive shooting and teaching. Brad will show you how to use and trust your senses—all of them— foremost among them, your eyes. By reading this book and practicing this Super Instinctive Shooting Method you will learn in a few days a very simple but effective instinctive form of wing shooting.
