Terras Raras: Peste Branca (Portuguese Edition) Hans Erich Kruger

3º Livro da "Serie Brasileira" de Hans Erich Kruger. Tudo começa com a fraude de certificados de mineração. Erich Meister é uma das vítimas. A exploração de terras raras é tema de primeira importância em muitos países industrializados, porque haverá riscos enormes de alguns minerais faltarem ou países produtores praticarem políticas estranguladoras de abastecimento. O Brasil possui terras raras, mas se sabe muito pouco sobre o potencial existente. Os Estados no Norte e Nordeste são os mais promissores. Comissões especiais do governo prospectam as regiões. Albert Fuchs é o vendedor dos certificados falsos. Na perseguição do Fuchs, Meister topa com a "Quadrilha", uma rede extensa de cocaína, também chamada de Peste Branca. Quanto mais Meister se envolve, tanto aumenta o perigo para ele, a sua família e seus amigos. Meister confia cegamente na ajuda dos seus amigos (veja "A Casa dos Morcegos"). A questão é sempre a mesma: o combate à corrupção e assassinatos de gente indefesa que quer apenas um pequeno espaço de felicidade na sua vida. E o lema dele é: não adianta apenas criticar – é preciso se empenhar, sem ressalvas – e estar preparado para enfrentar as consequências, se for o caso.
