Megalodon: It's Not Extinct... ...It's Here. Paul Conley

Marine biologist Ken Murphy can tell there is something wrong with the ocean environment off the coast of Rhode Island. His observations lead him to a conclusion that he cannot believe--and won't believe until it's too late! Along with his colleague, a Coast Guard helicopter pilot, and crazy old man on a rendezvous with death, Murphy sets out to confront the beast that has uprooted the world around him--the massive, once-thought extinct shark known to science as C. Megalodon! Hungry, terrifying and fearless, the Megalodon is here!
