Mark Lockheed and company face their fiercest opponent yet: history. What will he do when confronted with an adversary who twists the pages of history at his will? Mark is taken on a wild goose chase, trying to find the lost sword of King Arthur, Excalibur.

But he finds much more than just a sword. What he finds will call into question the very purpose of history, of archeology, and bring him and his companions into mortal danger ...

The Quest for Excalibur leads the reader on a roller-coaster ride in search of a legend. Packed with breathtaking suspense and nerve-shredding action, The Quest for Excalibur is a thrilling read for all fans of action, suspense, and intrigue.

A word from the author: Hello and thank you for your interest in my book. It has come to my attention that some people have been mistaking my books for those written by the famous author duo Douglas Preston and Lincoln Child. This is not the case. I wish to clarify that I am not, by any means, related to Douglas Preston or Lincoln Child, Lee Child or any other author called Preston Child. I hope this clears up the confusion.
