As an actor, how many times have you wondered whether or not to head to Hollywood? As a New York actress for over 7 years, I have often struggled with the decision to give LA a shot. But too many times have I heard the warnings of, don't go to LA unless you have an agent, don't go unless you have a job, don't go because the competition there is fierce.

Well, I was tired of hearing all the don'ts and I was ready to DO. I was going to Hollywood. This is a diary of my journey with all of my ups and downs as well as all the planning involved when I finally made the decision to go. No one was more surprised than me to find out where this journey led . . .
