Take the keen eye of a whimsical cartoonist and the on-target observations of a humorist and you have the inside story of sisterhood found in Crazy About My Sister. Here is a feel-good book that documents the truth that as kids, brothers and sisters often looked at their female siblings through less-than-loving eyes-but that somewhere along the way a miracle takes place that enables sisters to become best friends and confidants. Here is your opportunity to tell a sister, with affection and humor, exactly what you think of her-and she'll love you for it.
