Molten Layla

When love brands you, tragedy is only the beginning...

In 79 A.D. Pompeii, Leonardo and Aniela were a young couple in love. Then Mt. Vesuvius erupted and someone took advantage of the chaos to turn twenty-year-old Leonardo into a Molten, a fire elemental with a burning touch. Exploding with volcanic energy and suffering from temporary amnesia, he laid hands on the first person he came across...his wife. His touch burned her to cinders. For the past two thousand years, he has been tracking down her reincarnations, seeking to earn her forgiveness and win back her heart.

Aniela's latest reincarnation is contemporary Denver teen, Rachel. The sixteen-year-old dance student knows Leonardo simply as Leo, the young man who rescued her from drowning when she was five. She's falling for him...until she experiences a phantom earthquake no one else feels and, without knowing why, starts shouting "Volcano!"

Now, the pair must confront not only Rachel's fears, but also the creature ultimately responsible for Aniela's death—a fire elemental more ancient than Leonardo, with the power to enslave Rachel's heart forever.
