They say true love never dies and soulmates are forever. At least that's what Gerald and Desire believed until the love they once found themselves deeply in becomes nothing more than a routine. When Gerald becomes a key player in the streets, his love life and family fall apart as the wrong elements distract him from what's important. Soon after, Desiree decides enough is enough and seeks her own happiness and solace and finds herself falling for Spencer, a UPS deliveryman that turns out to be all she needs. While Gerald finds himself in a cyclone of lies, destruction, drugs and deceit, he ends up losing it all and reality smacks him right where it hurts most - his pride and heart. When he finally gets himself together he realizes that his marriage is worth fighting for and saving, but is it too late?
